DIRECT DIALOG

July is here already and the first week, dare I say it, begins with a BANG! I am pretty sure the skies will be filled with fireworks, the smell of summer grill fare, and fire pit roasted marshmallows! I hope that everyone takes a moment to recall the true meaning of the 4th of July/Independence Day and cherish the freedoms we have been afforded by all those whom have fought for us in the past, and the many who are still fighting to help keep secure the freedom & independence we hope to enjoy now and for the future!

Have fun, but be sure to stay safe out there!

MYSB's summer center began on Monday June 20th with excited kids (& staff) and our very first field trip (of 8 trips) was to Six Flags on Wednesday June 22nd.

It is the goal of our summer center to offer our kids/teenagers with the opportunity to enjoy a fun, safe, and busy summer.... We certainly do not want them to be too bored, and have sore fingers & poor eyesight from too much time on computers, cell phones, or video games! So for the majority of the summer we do our best to offer both physical and "use of brain power" types of challenges and activities, in a fun and safe environment! Before we know it will be time for pencils, books, and... Well, let's not rush it, because I am sure to get some "dirty looks". After all summer just started! Be safe out there, use good judgment when celebrating with family & friends and we sincerely hope that you and yours have a

Jam- packed- with- fun July!
